[Redacted] Met with Carl Marcy, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who told me that the transcript of yesterday's meeting with Richard Helms will not be available for Agency review and suggested that we not press for its release. I thanked him for the advice. He noted that Helms had accepted responsibility for domestic activities of the Agency and that a letter to James Schlesinger outlining Chairman Fulbright's feelings on matters such as the training of municipal police would be forthcoming. In response to my question, Marcy gave me his opinion that Chairman Fulbright's letter may not require a response.
